

GERMANS MAY TAKE LEMBERG AT ANY TIME

FOR THEY ARE ONLY TEN MILES FROM THE CITY

According to Advices Received in London from the City of Vienna Today.

TEUTON ADVANCE GOES ON
In the East for Purpose of Influencing Roumania, London Believes.

LONDON, June 7.—Telegrams from Vienna say that Lemberg, capital of the Austrian crownland of Galicia, now in the hands of the Russians, may be taken at any moment by the Austro-German forces, according to a despatch from Copenhagen.

One message from Vienna says that the Austrians are twenty-five miles from the town and other advices estimate the distance at only ten miles.

GERMAN STATEMENT OF WAR OPERATIONS

BERLIN, via London, June 7.—The war office issued the following statement today:

"Western theater of war.—The French renewed their attack on the southern slope of Lorette hills yesterday. Their attacks broke down completely under our fire. The enemy attacked unsuccessfully this morning southeast of Hagebuterne, east of Doullens. The battle has not come to a conclusion. A French attack extending over the large front at Moulins Sous Tourent northeast of Soissons was for the greater part repulsed immediately.

"Eastern theater of war.—North of Kuchany our cavalry forced a passage across the Windau, advancing in a southeasterly direction. Southeast of Kutovian and in the region east of Radvyniki our offensive made good progress."

FRENCH WAR OFFICE ISSUES STATEMENT

PARIS, June 7.—The French war office this afternoon gave out the following report:

"North of Arras last night was marked by an engagement of artillery of extreme severity. The enemy in this same region delivered two counter attacks. One of these took place at 5 o'clock when we delivered an attack near Hebuterne against the positions of the enemy located in the neighborhood of the Tourent farm. Here we occupied along a front of 1,200 yards two successive lines of trenches. North of the Aisne our French troops after a very effective bombardment at a point east of Tracyle-Mont and north of the Aisne carried two successive lines of trenches, together with several German works."

FRENCH FORCES MAKE STEADY ADVANCE NOW

LONDON, June 7.—Following the capture of the Russian position at Przemyśl the Germans apparently have sent heavy re-enforcements to the western line, where there are distinct signs of a resumption of the offensive on the part of the invaders. Nevertheless, the French report a slow and unimportant advance in the sector north of Arras. According to the French official report, French troops after a very effective bombardment at a point east of Tracyle-Mont and north of the Aisne carried two successive lines of trenches, together with several German works."

In the East the Austro-German advance continues with the objective, figuring prominently as the objective, the movement is regarded in London as political, the idea of the Germans and Austrians being to exert an influence upon Roumania. Petrograd announces a Russian success along the river, Pruth, near Kolomea, where the Austro-Germans are said to have been forced back across the river. Petrograd says also that the Russian lines of defense must be re-adjusted on account of the use of poisonous gases by the Germans. The reason for this is that these works, technically correct, under the ordinary conditions of warfare, become death traps when exposed to this new engine of hostilities.

The fighting along the central section of the river Isonzo has developed a series of furious engagements with the Italians finding stronger opposition than they hitherto have met. This morning the British public was informed that their forces have won a brilliant success at the point far from the main line of battle on the continent. Sir Percy Cox, at the head of a strong military and naval force, has gained a foothold at Amara, on the Tigris river, half way from the head of the Persian gulf to the city of Bagdad.

During the last few days the Anglo-Indian army, operating in this field, has captured many prisoners as well as guns and ammunition and has taken a gunboat, steamers and

"On the night of June 4-5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortified mouth of the Humber on the east coast of England, the naval port of Harwich, in Essex, England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich. They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railroad depot. German airships were shot at vigorously by guns on land and on ships. They were not hit and returned safely."

A semi-official statement from Petrograd last night said that the Russian warship, Yensel, had been sunk in the gulf of Riga by a German submarine. The Amur, a mine layer of 2,976 tons displacement was a sister ship of the Yensel and it is probable that the names of these vessels have been confused, apparently only one of them having been sunk.

The raid of German dirigibles over the east coast of England on the night of June 4-5 was announced Saturday, in a brief statement made officially at London, but no details of the places visited or damage done were given.

Another prominent college president who came out today with a similar statement is Dr. F. S. Luther, of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., who is mentioned as having been taken as hostage by the Germans, in a war article in McClure's. In discussing this article he said: "I will favor the most thorough and complete preparation for resistance to any attacks upon the nation. I think we should have a powerful army, and an equally powerful navy, and that our young men should be taught at least to shoot straight, to take care of themselves in the field, to speak the truth and to fear no man."
